THE CITY.

Lecture of a Chicagoan.—At Sunday afternoon's meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, in the Methodist Church, corner of Clark and Washington streets, Rev. Dr. Patton, of Boston, delivered a lecture on the "Life and Character of Abraham Lincoln." The lecturer is a native of Illinois, and was personally acquainted with Mr. Lincoln. He spoke of him as a man of the people, and as the representative man of the nineteenth century. He was born in the West, and was a child of Providence. He was a man of the people, and was the first President who ever visited Richmond. He was a man of God's providence, and was raised up for the occasion. He was a man of prayer, and was a Christian. He was a man of the Bible, and was a student of it. He was a man of the Union, and was its martyr. He was a man of the world, and was a citizen of heaven. The lecture was one of the most interesting ever delivered in this city, and was listened to by a large audience
